

HIBOX.CO – TERMS AND CONDITIONS

I. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. GENERAL TERMS

1.1. The user (hereafter “Client” or “User”) and Joincube, Inc. (hereafter the “Developer”) agree to the following terms and conditions. These conditions are considered accepted whenever the User signs up for an account on Hibox (hereafter the “Application”) or visits any website owned by the Developer.

2. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

2.1. The Developer hereby declares to possess the rights, licenses and pertinent authorizations to the necessary tools for the development and implementation of the Platform. The intellectual property of all development will be exclusively the property of the developer.

2.2. The Developer grants to the Client a non-transferable, non-sub-licensable, non-exclusive, temporary, territorially limited and onerous license for the use of the Platform and all modifications and adaptations made. The license is restrictive and does not include the power to exploit the Platform or use the Platform for anything other than the situations defined in these Terms and Conditions. The license of use implies both the possibility of using the application by the members, contractors, employees, users, of the client, as well as the possibility of inviting users to participate in the same application. In any case the user must accept the Terms of Use for which the developer will grant each user a limited license of use.

2.3. All text, graphics, user interface, visual interface, photograph, brand, logo, sound, music, illustration, content and programming code, whether source or object included, among other aspects, design, structure, expression, “aspect and appearance” and the disposal of such content on the platform, is exclusive property of the Developer or licensed by the Developer, and is protected by copyright, patent, trademark, and international intellectual property treaties.

3. CONFIDENTIALITY

3.1. For the effects of these Terms and Conditions, the Parties understand by “Confidential Information” the non-public information that the Developer identifies as confidential or that in the event of being revealed, should be treated as confidential.

Confidential Information includes, without limit to, information related to the Developer's software or hardware products, irrespective of whether they have been released for sale, offered in the market or promoted in any way; the practices or commercial policies of the Developer; its technical and financial knowledge; source and object codes; plans for future products; commercialization plans; specifications; formulas; settings for teams and networks; business strategy; inventions; discoveries; improvements; industrial secrets; interfaces; graphic designs; GUI; client data; users and employees; general "know-how"; drawings and models; algorithms; pricing information; ideas and any other information belonging to or in possession of the Developer, whether supplied by the Client or any other manner. For the effects of these Terms and Conditions, all the information that is provided to the Client or that the Client becomes aware of during the use and implementation of the Platform for the Client, whether the information belongs to the Developer or a Third Party, will be considered Confidential Information, without any need to indicate it as such.

3.2. Notwithstanding the above, the following will not be considered Confidential Information: information that (i) is or becomes public and available in such a way that it does not constitute a violation by the Client of any obligation to the Developer; (ii) or that was known by the Client before the Developer made the Client aware of said information; (iii) or that the Client became aware of by a different source than the Developer and that would not represent a violation of any confidentiality obligation to the Developer or (iv) that has been developed independently by the Client.

3.3. The Client declares to know that the Confidential Information is private and its disclosure would cause irreparable damage to the Developer, its partners or clients. As such, the Client will not reveal any Confidential Information to third parties, under any circumstance, without previous written authorization from the Developer.

3.4. The Client is expressly obligated to take all the necessary measures to protect, under the strictest confidentiality, all the Confidential Information that they are supplied with, and must take measures that as at least as effective as the measures they take to protect their own Confidential Information. In particular, the Client must protect the Confidential Information from illicit acts by third parties, such as thievery or spying. If by a judicial order the Client is obligated to share all or part of the Confidential Information, the Client will be able to comply with this requirement having previously notified the Developer within twenty four (24) hours of receiving the judicial notification in the interest of the Client proceeding to take the actions that are necessary to protect their interests.

3.5. The obligations of confidentiality and the use of confidential information contained in these Terms and Conditions have an indefinite validity.

3.6. The Parties recognize that the Developer will suffer an irreparable damage as a consequence of the violation of the obligations contemplated here, and as such any breach by the Client of the assumed obligations in these Terms and Conditions will enable the Developer to take the necessary legal actions to reclaim the losses and damages that the Client inflicted or could inflict, including all Lawyer's fees and costs incurred by the Developer.

3.7. The Developer will be able to use the implementation of the Platform by the Client for marketing uses, such as case studies, provided that it is for lawful purposes and that in no case the image and prestige of the Client is affected.

4. GENERAL CONDITIONS

4.1. If any part of these Terms and Conditions is illegal, null or inapplicable, said term will be considered separable from the Terms and Conditions and will not affect the validity and applicability of the rest of the terms.

4.2. The allowance of any breach of these Terms and Conditions will not imply an acceptance of future breaches with respect to these obligations.

4.3. The Parties will be able to modify the present Terms and Conditions at any time by mutual written agreement.

II. TERMS OF SERVICE – CLIENT

The services will be provided by Joincube, Inc.

1. ANNUAL AND MONTHLY SUBSCRIPTION

1.1 The Client agrees to make payments for the services in advance at the beginning of each period. In the event that the respective payment is not made, the provider has the right to block access to the account within 30 days of the failed payment. Additionally, the client must pay the amount of the corresponding payment along with a penalty of 1% for every day it is overdue.

1.2 The Client is able to cancel the service at any moment, without any refund of subscriptions for months already paid from the developer.

2. GUARANTEES AND LEVELS OF SERVICE

2.1. The provider offers a guarantee of the functionality of the platform for use made in accordance with the terms and conditions of this proposal and its Annexes.

2.2. The Provider guarantees a monthly service availability rate of 97%.

2.3. The monthly service availability rate will not be affected, and the Provider will not be held responsible for performance or availability problems:

- a) As a result of factors beyond the reasonable control of the Provider (for example, a network or device error on the client's end, between our servers and the Client's, or failing of the internet provider of the Client or the Provider;
- b) As a result of the Client or a third party's hardware, software, or services.
- c) As a result of the actions or omissions of the Client or a third party.
- d) During use of the preliminary versions (ex. preliminary technical versions, alfa versions, beta, as determined by the provider);
- e) Attributed to the actions or omissions of the client or their employees, agents, contractors, suppliers, representatives, or any other person who obtains access to the Platform through the passwords and equipment of the Client.

2.4. Complaints about the unavailability of the servers of the Platform. The client will provide the Provider with all of the reasonable details related to the claim, including, but not limited to, detailed descriptions of the incident, the duration, network tracking routes, and any attempts by the Client to resolve the incident. The client must present any claim with sufficient evidence to support it.

2.5. The Provider provides all of the reasonable information necessary for validating the claim and will use good judgment in determining if the level of service guaranteed applies to the claim. In the affirmative case, the platform's downtime will be added to the current month's bill.

2.6. The Provider will reimburse the Client a maximum of 25% of the monthly bill if the Platform's imputable downtime according to the levels of service is less than 97%. The reimbursement will be made in the form of a discount to the monthly bill following the month affected by the claim.

2.7. The Provider will provide technical assistance, correction of bugs and training in order to resolve any problems that can come with launching the platform for the Client. It will also create the necessary manuals so that the Client can train its own dependents to use the Platform, provided that the manuals and tutorials available within the Platform itself prove to not be sufficient, at the discretion of the Client.

The User accepts that neither the operator or Provider can be held responsible for any modification, suspension, or interruption of the services of the Platform.

3.6. The Provider can provide updates, new versions, improvements and aggregations of the functions of the Platform or any other element thereof.

3.7. The Provider reserves all rights not expressly granted in these Terms of Use and its attached documents.

4. Limited License

4.1. The Provider grants the Operator and the User a limited, non-exclusive, non-sublicensable and nontransferable license to access and make personal use of the Platform, subject to acceptance of all terms and conditions of these Terms of Use. This does not include: any right to use, modify, distribute, or store any content different from those established in these Terms of Use. This does not include any right to resell or use the Platform for commercial purposes or any other derivative use of the Platform and its respective content.

4.2. The Platform and any of its parts may not be reproduced, duplicated, copied, sold, resold, license, rented, or exploited in any way, for any commercial purpose, without the prior, written, and express consent of the Provider.

4.3. The Operator and User understand and accept that the Platform is licensed for use (and not sold), only in the terms described in these Terms of Use.

4.4. The User may not directly or indirectly copy, decompile, reverse engineer, disassemble, attempt to exploit the code, modify or create tasks derived from the Platform or its parts.

4.5. This license is in effect as long as it is not revoked by the Provider, the Operator, or by the User. The rights covered by these Terms of Use shall be terminated without prior notice in case of breach by the User of any of the conditions set forth in these Terms of Use or in its attached documents. Upon termination of the license, the User must stop using the Platform and destroy all copies, total or partial, of the same and any other service or content in its possession.

4.6. The User understands and accepts that the content, information and any material of the Platform are protected by laws of intellectual property and other laws, and that it will not use the contents, information or material, in any way that is not expressly allowed by the established conditions in these Terms of Use or its accompanying documents.

4.7. "Protected Content" is provided for information and personal use only, and may not be used, copied, reproduced, aggregated, transmitted, disseminated, displayed, alienated, licensed, or exploited for any purpose without the prior written consent of the Respective owners.

5. User Responsibility

5.1. To use the Platform, the User must have been invited by an Administrator User and provide true, accurate, current and complete personal information.

5.2. The Provider and the Operator reserve the right, without prior notice: (a) to determine the functions, services, appearance or other characteristics that will be available for the users use within the Platform, and (b) to add, modify or remove any content, material and/or functionality that is available on the Platform at any time and for any reason; (C) suspend or remove User accounts, including their content, that have been reported for misuse of the Platform; (D) suspend and/or delete the accounts, including their content, of Users in which there has been improper use of the Platform, including falsification of identity or affiliation with any person or entity, including the use of the username and password of another person or other account information.

5.3. The User is solely responsible for all the activity performed by him/her or anyone who uses his/her account. If you believe that your account has been compromised, you should immediately contact the Operator by email at the address indicated at the end of these Terms of Use.

5.4. Compliance with Acceptable Use Policies. The User agrees to use the Platform in accordance with these Terms of Use, the Acceptable Use Policies, the regulations that apply to the Operator and /or the activity of the Operator, and the instructions of use that the Operator imparts by any means.

5.5. The User may not use the Platform to violate the rights of third parties, including copyrights, and is therefore only permitted to upload contents for which he/she owns the intellectual and/or industrial property rights and/or authorizations of the holders of said rights.

5.6. The User agrees to hold the Provider and the Operator, its representatives, employees, directors and suppliers not responsible for any claim, liability, loss or claim, including attorneys' fees, arising out of or in relation to the content that the User Generates and shares in the Platform; the use of the data and personal information accessed through the Platform; to the violation of any of the conditions of these Terms of Use and its attached documents; or to the violation of the rights of another person or entity.

6. Operator Responsibilities

6.1. The Operator shall carry out the administration and internal management of the Platform for Users, including: a) maintaining the confidentiality of the access credentials of the Administrators Users; B) report to the Provider and the authorities on any illegal activities carried out through using the Platform; C) comply with the applicable legislation on the protection of personal data and privacy; D) only authorize people linked to your organization as Users of the Platform; G) not to sell or lease the Platform, or use it in any form, free or costly, outside of what is permitted by these Terms of Use and its accompanying documents.

6.2. THE PROVIDER LICENSES THE PLATFORM TO THE OPERATOR AND THE USER FOR THE EXCHANGE OF LICENSE INFORMATION. THE PROVIDER HAS NO INHERENCE OR CONTROL ON THE CONTENT AND SUCH INFORMATION PUBLISHED BY THE PROVIDER OR THE OPERATOR. THE PROVIDER DOES NOT PARTICIPATE IN THE INTERNAL RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE OPERATOR AND THE USERS.

7. Warranty and Liability

7.1. The Provider shall not be responsible for the content or information that may be accessed through the Platform.

7.2. The Provider recognizes the account Operator as the sole owner of the intellectual property of the information shared by the Users.

7.3. The Provider provides the Platform to the Operator for its own organization and the exchange of information by its Users. The Provider does not control or examine the content generated by Users, does not guarantee that such content is appropriate and /or that it does not violate legal provisions and /or that do not contain malicious code.

7.4. The Provider is not obligated to verify the identity of the Users, and is reason why it will not be responsible in any case of illegitimate interposition of identity.

7.5. The Provider will not be responsible for any circumstance that are outside its control or its possibility of knowing, such as the malfunctioning of the Platform due to congestion of the networks, the use of obsolete equipment by the Users, etc.

7.6. The Provider shall not be liable for any direct or indirect damages arising from the use of the Platform, or for any other claim related to any other way in which the User uses the Platform, nor for the performance thereof, nor for errors or omissions in any content, nor for loss or damage of any kind caused by the use of content sent, transmitted or otherwise accessible through the Platform.

7.7. The Provider will not be liable directly or indirectly for any loss or damage caused to the User in relation to any content, information, opinion, recommendation or advice expressed by a third party within the Platform.

8. Termination.

8.1. Rescission.

8.1.1. Either party may terminate this agreement at any time in accordance with the following procedure: i) The Operator, through the administrators, will send the User an email to the address stated in the registration process, and after a term 30 days, will proceed to delete the account in the Platform. If the termination is based on User's breach of these Terms of Use or its accompanying documents, the resolution for breach will go into effect and removal of the account may be instantaneous from the time the Operator discovers or notices of such breach. ii) The User can terminate an account from the Platform configuration panel by selecting the "delete user" option.

8.2. Resolution.

8.2.1. Breaches of Users. The Operator is in charge of the administration of the Platform. If the Operator warns that any User has violated any of its obligations assumed in these Terms of Use or its attached documents, the Operator may, in its sole discretion, suspend or eliminate the User that has committed the breach, automatically putting into effect the resolution of the Contract.

9. Miscellaneous provisions.

9.1. If you have any questions about these Terms of Use please contact support@hibox.co.

9.2. Assignment. A user can not assign their rights and obligations contained in these Terms of Use without prior joint written authorization of the Provider and the Operator.

9.3. The Provider reserves the right to modify or replace these Terms of Use by its sole discretion and without notice. These changes will be published through the Provider's Website and/or the Operator or by other appropriate means of electronic communication, and the continuation of use of the Platform by the Users implies the acceptance of the changes.

9.4. This statement is subject to the United States and State of Delaware and for all intent and purposes the parties submit to the jurisdiction of the Courts of New Castle, State of Delaware, waiving any other jurisdiction.

9.5. These Terms of Use together with the accompanying documents constitute the entire agreement between the User, the Operator and the Provider in relation to the Platform, and govern the use thereof and supersede any prior agreement between these parties.

9.6. Divisibility. If any provision of this Agreement is void, invalid, illegal or impossible to fulfill, this will not affect the validity, applicability and compliance with the rest of its provisions.

9.7. Language. The provisions of these Terms of Use and their accompanying documents, as well as any other documentation intended to govern the relationship between the Parties, shall be interpreted according to the English language version.
